

A ROMAN BRONZE EAGLE PHALERA 2ND-3RD CENTURY A.D.

Things that we doing are designed only for historical festivals participation -reenactment.They are made in small series and are designed primarily for our Legion IIII Schytica .

A ROMAN BRONZE EAGLE PHALERA 2ND-3RD CENTURY A.D.

The openwork roundel with a figure of an eagle flanked by a thunderbolt and palm frond, the eagle standing on a pedestal with outspread wings, head turned to its right, an attachment loop behind; 3rd Century A.D.

2½ in. (6.5 cm.) diam. respectively (2)

<http://www.christies.com/lotfinder/LotDetailsPrintable.aspx?intObjectID=3993900>

The latest improved version of “3-th century Roman eagle”

