

Hellenic, Thracian and Scythian rod depicts the head of a griffin.

A ritual objects. Together with the rod depicts the head of a griffin.

After I being inspired by exhibits Scythian rod from Historical Museum of Dobrich. I decided to recreate this rod for our club ritual needs!

Scepter of the king of Scythian town or village the metal part.

My wax job on the Scythian griffin.

Very similar scepter depicted on Thracian numismatics. Kings of Thrace, Rhoemetalkes I Æ18. 11 BC-AD 12. ΣΕΒΑΣΤΟΥ, scepter and capricorn / POIMHTAKOY, sella curulis and sceptre; monogram above sella. Fish-tailed Capricorn the zodiac sign of the divine Augustus under the sceptre!
